

Youth Faith Formation

3 Tips for Inviting Youth to the Work of Racial Justice A resource from the ELCA Youth Ministry Network and the Southeastern Michigan Synod.

Helping Young People Grieve and Take Action From Fuller Theological Seminary, this is a diverse ministry perspective to help teenagers respond to racialized violence and injustice.

Racial Justice Tools and Resources from the ELCA Faith Formation Team, which was founded in 2013 to provide theologically evaluated resources focused on ministry with children, youth, and young adults.

Resources for Talking About Race, Racism and Racialized Violence with Kids From the Center for Racial Justice in Education. Its mission is to train and empower educators to dismantle patterns of racism and injustice in our schools and communities. At the Center for Racial Justice in Education, we envision a world where all young people learn and thrive in racially equitable, liberating, and empowering educational spaces.

Systemic Injustice from Youth Works. Systemic injustice is one of those slippery, disguised, complex ideas that makes you wonder if you will ever fully understand it.

Together We Rise From the 2015 ELCA Youth Gathering—Rise Up Together.

Your Kids Aren't Too Young to Talk About Race: Resource Roundup From Pretty Good, its purpose is to make good information easier to understand and share on social media.